What is Camp Creamery?

Camp Creamery is a week-long workshop for children who are interested in exploring the exciting world of theatre! The camp is designed to give children ages 7 and up the opportunity to work and perform with professional actors from The Old Creamery Theatre Company while they rehearse and present a play right in your own community.

Camp Creamery can accommodate up to 60 children. Participants rehearse for four hours each day, Monday through Friday, and then perform in the final production at the end of the week. Our Camp Creamery production for the summer of 2011 is a brand new musical, complete with pirates and damsels in distress, called The Legend of Blackbeard's Gold.

What does The Old Creamery Theatre provide?

- Three professional performer/directors that instruct participants and perform with them in the show
- Scripts for all participants to use for the week
- Costumes for all participants for the show
- Make-up for all participants for the show
- Set
- Props
- Professionally recorded music tracks
- Up to two performances of the final production on Friday and/or Saturday of your camp week
- Promotional material to help the host advertise the camp and show performances

What does the host need to provide?

- Someone to handle the registration process for participants from the community
- A performance space large enough to accommodate 60 performers
- A rehearsal space where participants can be split into smaller groups
- A host to meet with the camp counselors the first day of rehearsal
- A volunteer to run the light and sound cues for the dress rehearsal and the performance(s)
- Publicity for the camp and final production
- Housing for the camp directors during the time they are in town for rehearsals and performances

What is the cost?

The fee for a week-long Camp Creamery residency and up to two performances is $3,000. This fee includes everything listed above. If your organization charges a registration fee for the camp, sells tickets to the final performance(s), sells advertising in the program, or has sponsors, that money is yours to keep. This could actually be a fundraiser for your organization!
